POST VISIT QUESTIONS

1. Describe the role the press plays in American Government.
2. Describe the ways in which public officials sometimes use the media to shape public opinion.
3. Describe the methods, processes and platforms leaders use to gather information.
4. Describe the methods, processes and platforms informed citizens use to gather information.
5. Compare and contrast your answers from question numbers three and four.
6. Analyze the value of public access to the decision making processes of the executive branch of government.
7. The first time presidential succession was addressed in the Constitution was in Article II, Section I. Presidential succession was then re-visited in the 25th amendment.

Based on your experience in the SRE, write the text for a new constitutional amendment regarding presidential succession. Create rules for who should take the place of the President of the United States and under what circumstances. Also, describe how your rules will be effectively implemented.

The text for your amendment should be at least four sentences. Be prepared to discuss with the class to explain your reasoning.
