AWARD-WINNING SIMULATION

AT THE RONALD REAGAN PRESIDENTIAL LIBRARY

An unparalleled environment not available anywhere else

Immerses high-achieving, goal-oriented professionals in an international crisis scenario based on real history and primary source documents in the actual Situation Room from the White House.

Demands high level of performance as participants assume the roles of the White House crisis management team, members of the intelligence community and the media all facing multiple challenges in real time.

Creates competition between and collaboration among teams to solve serious problems. The experiential event expects participants to perform in a high-stakes, fast-paced environment.

Provides an exceptional opportunity for business leaders to assess their teams' performance and develop key takeaways to improve and refine communication, decision making, crisis management and critical thinking skills.

"The team dynamics really came to light in this situation."

"It allowed us to take a look at some of our own behaviors and challenges."

"It gave me the opportunity to prove myself as a leader."

All fees generated support:
